Sub-national Action on Adaptation in and for Least Developed Countries: The Role of the LDCF

This side event, organized by Oxford Climate Policy and Oxford University, will provide an opportunity to discuss adaptation experiences and needs in LDCs, and the role of subnational authorities in implementing the Paris Agreement by supporting the most vulnerable to adapt. The event will also shine a light on opportunities for subnational support from the developed world, including through the LDCF.

Monday, November 13

18:30 – 20:00

Meeting Room 9 (Bonn Zone)

Early Lessons from GEF IAPs: Increasing Impact in GEF-7

This event will present progress made under the GEF-6 Integrated Approach Pilots (IAPs) on Sustainable Cities, Taking Deforestation out of Commodity Supply Chains, and Fostering Sustainability and Resilience for Food Security in Sub-Saharan Africa. It will also provide an opportunity to take stock of early lessons learned from GEF-6 to inform programming under GEF-7, the next replenishment period of the GEF.

Wednesday, November 15

18:30 – 20:00

Meeting Room 12 (Bonn Zone)

Enhancing Transparency through the CBIT

This event will showcase country experiences with MRV and transparency efforts, including with the support of the Capacity-building Initiative for Transparency (CBIT). The event will also be an opportunity to explore challenges and opportunities in embracing enhanced transparency to support climate action and inform national planning and decision-making processes.

Thursday, November 16

13:15-14:45

Meeting Room 12 (Bonn Zone)

Strengthening Collaboration for Supporting Countries in Implementing the Paris Agreement

This joint GEF/GCF side-event will present the progress made by the operating entities of the Financial Mechanism in enhancing collaboration to support countries in implementing the Paris Agreement and promoting low-carbon and climate resilient development. The event will also explore strategic ways for the entities to maximize opportunities for synergy.
