

GEF CSO Dialogue with the GEF on the role of Civil Society, Indigenous Peoples and Local Communities in Enhancing Climate Resilience, June 11, 2021 Draft Agenda (June10):
7:00 – 7:05	Introduction of Agenda	Master of Ceremonies, Gabriella Richardson Temm, GEF Secretariat
7:05 – 8:30	CSO Dialogue with the GEF on the role of Civil Society, Indigenous Peoples and Local Communities Enhancing Climate Resilience
7:05 - 7:20	Welcome presentation	Chair, GEF CSO Network: Sano Akhteruzzaman
7:20 - 7:35	Opening Remarks	GEF CEO and Chairperson: Carlos Manuel Rodríguez GEF Council: Member: Mette Moglestue, Norway
7:35 - 8:10	Overview and perspectives on finance modalities/approaches supporting civil society related to climate resilience and adaptation	GEF Secretariat: Chizuru Aoki, Lead Environmental Specialist/Manager of LDCF/SCCF The Adaptation Fund: Mikko Ollikainen, Manager The GEF SGP: Françoise Clottes, GEF Director, Strategy and Operations; Yoko Watanabe, SGP Manager (book launch); and Pradeep Kurukulasuriya, UNDP Executive Coordinator/ Director
8.10 - 8:40	Open Q&A session	Maria Lechner, Vice Chair, GEF CSO Network
Virtual coffee break (10 minutes)
8:40 -11:00	Roundtable discussions
8:40 – 9:40	Roundtable 1: Financing Climate Security - Adaptation Experiences in Fragile and Conflict Affected Situations: Moderator: Cynthia Brady, Global Fellow, Wilson Center
	Objective: Showcase/discuss good practices and lessons learned, including project activities and challenges as well as distilling elements for consideration in future GEF Programming. Featuring LDCF /SCCF and GEF SGP projects in fragile/conflict-affected situations supporting civil society/local communities to combat the negative impacts of climate change (local climate adaptation/ resilience)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Yon Fernandez Larrinoa, Chief of the Indigenous Peoples Unit, FAO. - Bobby, Chief Executive Officer of the Network Activities Group (NAG), Myanmar - N'lemvo Soli Junior, Project manager, "Improving Women and Children's Resilience and Capacity to Adapt to Climate Change," DRC - Fadimatou Buba, Leader, Madakson Cattle Breeders Group, Cameroon - Ghulam Sadiq, Director of Organization for Humanitarian Relief (OCHR), Afghanistan
	GEF Discussant: Katya Kuang-Idba
	Panel Discussion and Q&A session facilitated by Moderator (15 min)
9:40 – 10:40	Roundtable 2: Inclusion in Community-based and Autonomous Adaptation: Moderator: Edward Carr, Professor, Clark University, and member of GEF STAP
	Objective: Showcase/discuss good practices and lessons learned, including project activities and challenges as well as distilling elements for consideration in future GEF Programming. Featuring LDCF/SCCF and GEF SGP community-led and autonomous adaptation supporting inclusion, local communities and/or gender mainstreaming/women's empowerment to enhance resilience
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Jorge Mario Rodriguez, Head, the Forest Fund in Costa Rica - Roseleen Gurung, Director of Programmes at the Tarayana Foundation, Bhutan - Toki Sylvestre, Executive Director, Aquatic Services, Madagascar

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Ibrahima Adam Ahmed Balila, Civil Engineer and Project Manager, Sudan EbA Project in the White Nile State - Eurica Douglas, General Manager, Clarendon Parish Development Committee, Jamaica - Yoshiko Yamaguchi, SGP National Coordinator, Republic of Marshall Islands GEF Discussant: Dorji Tshewang
	Panel Discussion and Q&A session facilitated by Moderator (15 min)
10:40 -11:00	Concluding Discussion: Facilitated by Sano Akhteruzzaman, Chair, GEF CSO Network
10:40- 10:55	Concluding remarks	GEF Council: Lavern Queeley, St. Kitts and Nevis GEF-OFP
10:55- 11:00	Wrap up/summary	Lucy Mullenkei – Chair of the GEF Indigenous Peoples Advisory Group (IPAG)