Flight Tickets

- You will receive a suggested travel itinerary by email (the email address in your registration). Please review the itinerary, your full name in the tickets, any connecting stops and transit visa requirements. Airline flights can fill up fast; to avoid any last minute change, please confirm your itinerary promptly.
- The GEF authorizes the most economical round-trip economy fares.
- You will receive an Electronic ticket (E-tkt), an e-passenger receipt and final itinerary only after you confirm the purchase.
- Please print out the E-tkt receipt and carry it with you when you travel.
- Please be aware that some airlines prohibit name changes to correct spelling or the order of names. We cannot make any name changes after your ticket has been issued.
- Please check your SPAM/Junk mail folder for automated emails from AMEX - They might be your Electronic tickets!

Airport Transfer

GEF-Sponsored Participants: Round-trip transfer (airport-hotel-airport) will be provided by the hotel. You do not need to contact the hotel, since we send your travel itinerary to the hotel. At airport arrival, please look out for a driver holding a sign of the green GEF logo or the hotel name.

Visas

Participants who require a visa to enter Uzbekistan should apply at the nearest Embassy/Consulate. If there is no Embassy or Consulate in your country, please be sure to send us a scanned copy of your passport's identity page and we will contact the host ministry to check if visa on arrival is possible. Also, please be sure to confirm all necessary en-route visas. The GEF is not responsible for visa arrangements for participants.

Materials

Materials will be in English and Russian. Presentations and related materials will be made available electronically online on the GEF Website: <http://www.thegef.org/events/gef-ecw-uzbekistan>

Per diem & Meals

The hotel will provide breakfast and lunch on all workshop days. A modest per diem will be provided to all GEF-Sponsored participants on 28 September at the conclusion of the workshop. Per diem and hotel costs will also be provided en-route, if applicable (in this case, all receipts must be provided).
