CEO Recommendation*Brief Reasoning for CEO Recommendations

This project seeks to address a number of SAICM topics including lead in paints and chemicals in building materials, electronics and toys. For Lead in paints the project will work with SMEs in 8 countries in three regions to develop best practice and guidance that will be used in 40 countries to facilitate the phase out of lead in paints in 40 countries.

For chemicals in products the project will work with the UNEP Resources and Markets branch to develop global guidance on setting criteria within sustainable public procurement processes and standards to avoid harmful chemicals in key building and electronics products. In the building sector the project will pilot linking green building codes into the mortgage sector in Sri Lanka by supporting the development of guidance and tools to promote construction or retail finance for green certified buildings and/or green certified building products.

In the electronics sector the project will complement work being done in Asia and Africa to support the development of circular approaches for management of electronics.
