20. With respect to any PIF approved in this work program, either under one of the programmatic approaches or as a stand-alone PIF, the Council requested the Secretariat to arrange for Council Members to receive a copy of the draft final project document that is submitted to the CEO for endorsement. Council Members may transmit to the CEO within four weeks any concerns they may have prior to the CEO’s endorsing a project document for final approval by the GEF Agency.

21. The associated Tables 1 to 3 annexed to this Joint Summary of the Chairs detail all the funding decisions taken by the Council during this 36th session, including decisions on the work program and budget.
Highlights of the Council Decisions

Agenda Item 12 Work Program

23. Council Members praised the Secretariat for presenting an excellent work program and commended the improvement of the quality of the PIFs. STAP comments on the PIFs have also been found to be very useful.

24. Many Members expressed appreciation for the high percentage of this work program’s going to Africa across all focal areas.

25. Questions were raised by different Members regarding the composition of the work program, in particular, the relatively large percentage of PIFs under Programmatic Approaches (PAs), but also the criteria for the selection of the 34 PIFs, including the 11 technology transfer projects.

26. The CEO clarified that the composition of the November work program was driven partly by the available resources and by the priority accorded to the PIFs under the PAs until September 30, which explains the relatively large percentage of PIFs under PAs.

27. The selection of the 11 technology transfer projects was based on the resources allocated to the Poznan Strategic Program on Technology Transfer, the CEO further explained; moreover, all focal points and the UNFCCC secretariat had received a letter explaining which criteria would be used to accept projects. The selection criteria used included the innovativeness of the projects and hence, an associated higher risk was assumed in such projects. The CEO also reminded Council Members that a PIF is not a complete project descriptor and thus does not fully address all risks associated with a project.

28. One Council Member requested that a monitoring report on the implementation of the technology transfer projects should be submitted to Council at some point.

29. Of the PIFs presented in this work program, it was noted that the biodiversity project in Guinea, “SPWA-BD Mainstreaming Biodiversity in Mineral Governance in Guinea,” has been withdrawn by the World Bank due to the de facto status of the Government of Guinea. The Council Member representing the constituency that includes Guinea urged the World Bank to consider the project for a future work program when the situation in the country has improved.

30. One Council Member expressed appreciation for seeing the three projects under the GEF Pacific Alliance for Sustainability Program and requested that continued support should be given to the remainder of the projects under the Program.

31. One Council Member raised concerns regarding the technology transfer project in Cambodia: Climate Change Related Technology Transfer for Cambodia: Using Agricultural Residue Biomass for Sustainable Energy Solutions. It was felt that the proposed project presents a number of risks that have not been appropriately identified and quantified. It was suggested that the project be pulled out from this work program and resubmitted after STAP undertakes a second review. After further consultation, it was agreed that the project will stay in the work program. However it was agreed that STAP should undertake a second review of the project for consideration by the country and the Agency in the further preparation of the project. The second review by STAP should be circulated to the Council Members to ensure that the concerns are properly addressed before the project can go forward.

32. The CEO noted that the GEF expects to receive around $300 million in December to support another intersessional work program planned for early 2010 and that there may be another $80 million around May/June 2010 for a possible intersessional work program after that.
